

Brilliant bogs:

biodiversity & species

Deborah Long, Head of Plantlife Scotland
Craig Macadam, Conservation Director, Buglife

What makes a bog?

What makes a bog special?

Plantlife

Plantlife

Plantlife

Plantlife

What about invertebrates?

A unique assemblage of invertebrates

Group	No.
Spiders	7
Dragonflies	3
Grasshoppers and Crickets	2
True-bugs	10
Flies	10
Beetles	39
Caddisflies	4
Bees, wasps and ants	1

Species of Conservation Concern associated with Lowland Raised Bogs

Bog sun-jumper spider (Heliophanus dampfi)

Bog bush cricket (Metrioptera brachyptera)

Large heath butterfly (Coenonympha tullia)

Green hairstreak butterfly (Callophrys rubi)

Ten-spotted pot beetle (Cryptocephalus decemmaculatus)

Hieroglyphic ladybird (Coccinella hieroglyphica)

Northern Emerald Dragonfly (Somatochlora arctica)

Bog reed beetle (Plateumaris discolor)

Brilliant bogs.....

.....the challenge

STOP THE ROT

PROTECT THE BEST

RESTORE THE REST

