The quantity and nature of the goods we consume are drivers of our climate and ecological emergencies.

A strong Circular Economy Bill for Scotland with targets for reducing our consumption of resources can set an ambitious framework to help address climate change, biodiversity loss and other impacts on the environment.